

ANZAC Day Centenary...

As Anzac Day marks the centenary of the Gallipoli landing, Christians are singing their Exultet of “the happy fault” of one young man’s death – a death that gives hope to all the fallen. At the going down of the sun and in the morning, we remember them; but more importantly, God remembers them and so they will rise again. We dare say with St Paul: “O Death, where is your victory?” (1Cor 15:54) With the exultant Church we sing that Easter “dispels wickedness, washes faults away, restores innocence to the fallen, and joy to mourners, drives out hatred, fosters concord and brings down the mighty.”

Christ goes down into the tomb, even into the graves of those who died at Gallipoli, to announce: “In the world you have tribulation; but be of good cheer, for I have overcome the world!” (Jn 16:33) Christ rises from the tomb and as our Easter Gospels record His first words to the newborn Church are: Shalom, Peace be with you? (Jn 20: 19-31; Lk 24: 35-48).

A Sunday school teacher asked the children just before she dismissed them to go to church, "And why is it necessary to be quiet in church?"

Annie replied, "Because people are sleeping"

WE NEED YOUR HELP TO NAME THE NEWLY RENOVATED KIDS' CHURCH ROOM - WIN A $50 WESTFIELD GIFT VOUCHER!

The Building and Maintenance Committee of the church needs your help to name the kids' church room below the main church, which is in the process of being renovated.

The entry date for the competition has now been extended to Sunday 3 May 2015 and is now open to all kids (and big kids) who are in primary or high school.

What do you think it should be called? You could name it after your favourite Saint, or pick a catchy name like "Kids for Christ" or anything else creative that you can think of. You can participate as an individual or as part of a group.

All you need to do is email your entry to kidschurchname@gmail.com by 3 May 2015. Your entry should include the following details:

1. Your name (if you are participating as part of a group, list the name of all the group members)
2. Adult's contact details (please provide an email address and phone number and name of the adult with whom we will make contact if you are the winner of the competition)
3. Your suggested name for the new kids' church room
4. Your reasons for why you have chosen the name

The competition will be judged by Father Alo and members of the Building and Maintenance Committee and the winner will be announced when we reopen the kids church room following the renovations.

The winner will take home a $50 Westfield gift voucher – if you are participating as part of a group, be sure you share it fairly with your fellow group members! Good luck!
