CONTINUING “DILEXIT NOS”: He loved us... Encyclical on the Sacred Heart by Pope Francis [excerpts from ## 9 -16].

RETURNING TO THE HEART

“In this “liquid” world of ours, we need to start speaking once more about the heart and thinking about this place where every person, of every class and condition, creates a synthesis, where they encounter the radical source of their strengths, convictions, passions and decisions. Yet, we find ourselves immersed in societies of serial consumers who live from day to day, dominated by the hectic pace and bombarded by technology, lacking in the patience needed to engage in the processes that an interior life by its very nature requires. In contemporary society “models of behaviour that, sadly, are now widespread exaggerate our rational-technological dimension or, on the contrary, that of our instincts”. No room is left for the heart.

The issues raised by today’s liquid society are much discussed, but this depreciation of the deep core of our humanity – the heart – has a much longer history. We find it already present in Hellenic and pre-Christian rationalism, in post-Christian idealism and in materialism in its various guises. The heart has been ignored in anthropology, and the great philosophical tradition finds it a foreign notion, preferring other concepts such as reason, will or freedom.”

[Pope Francis here acknowledges some major difficulties for spirituality of the heart in contemporary society geared so much to the rational and measurable – to scientism which regards science and the scientific method, the rational and measurable as ‘real’, and the only source of truth.] There is a problem because “the very meaning of the term “Heart” is imprecise and hard to situate within our human experience. Perhaps this is due to the difficulty of treating it as a “clear and distinct idea”, or because it entails the question of self-understanding, where the deepest part of us is also that which is least known. Even encountering others does not necessarily prove to be a way of encountering ourselves, inasmuch as our thought patterns are dominated by an unhealthy individualism. Many people feel safer constructing their systems of thought in the more readily controllable domain of intelligence and will. The failure to make room for the heart, as distinct from our human powers and passions viewed in isolation from one another, has resulted in a stunting of the idea of a personal centre, in which love, in the end, is the one reality that can unify all the others.

If we devalue the heart, we also devalue what it means to speak from the heart, to act with the heart, to cultivate and heal the heart. It could be said, then, that I am my heart, for my heart is what sets me apart, shapes my spiritual identity and puts me in communion with other people. The algorithms operating in the digital world show that our thoughts and will are much more “uniform” than we had previously thought. They are easily predictable and thus capable of being manipulated. That is not the case with the heart. The word “heart” evokes the inmost core of our person, and thus it enables us to understand ourselves in our integrity and not merely under one isolated aspect [– such as our intellect or will.] [To be continued.]

JESUIT REFUGEE SERVICE (JRS) FOOD BANK

This issue of food security remains one of the biggest challenges faced by the people we serve. Our Food Bank program supports over 300 families each week however, we are in need of food donations to continue our work. We are currently in desperate need of pantry staple items such as:-

Basmati rice 1kg & 2kg
 Cooking oil 750ml & 1ltr
 Dry chickpeas
 Dry red & green lentils
 Long life milk
 Coconut milk

Boxes will be available in the church foyer for collection of donated items.

If you would like to organise a donation or need more information email: foodbank@jrs.org.au or call 0434 422 573.

CHRISTMAS STALL – SR DUCHESNE OLSH – NOV 23:24

THE 2024 CHRISTMAS SEASON HAS ARRIVED AND AGAIN IT IS TIME TO HOLD OUR CHRISTMAS STALL TO HELP RAISE FUNDS FOR OUR MISSION IN SOUTH AFRICA - WHERE OUR SISTERS CONDUCT AN ORPHANAGE FOR CHILDREN WHOSE PARENTS DIED OF A.I.D.S. The children remain there until they turn 18 when they have to move to a job or higher education. Your contribution to the stall is a great financial support to help the Sisters carry out their work. The stall will be operating before and after each of the Masses next weekend: Saturday and Sunday Nov 23, 24. You will find some lovely packages suitable for Christmas gifts for family and friends. I hope to see you all there and thank you in advance for your generosity. A happy and blessed Christmas to each of you. Sr Duchesne OLSH.

THANKS: ON BEHALF OF ALL OF US I EXTEND OUR THANKS TO Herlina Halim who has been organising the Kids Church Program for many years now.

Herlina is handing over this important ministry for kids to Meiliana Tjandrahadi who will conduct the kids outreach with Sherly Handjojo – both are currently involved with Kids Church. Blessings. Fr Peter Hearn MSC
